- Promotion of the Youth Work Curriculum Statement for Wales
- Partnership projects
- Supporting Extending Entitlement
- Networking in Wales, the UK and wider
- Promoting the languages and cultures of Wales
- Sharing information and good practice
- Funding support

PARTNERSHIPS AND POLICY

The Council for Wales of Voluntary Youth Services works in partnership with many agencies throughout Wales to support good youth work practice in the Voluntary Sector.

Extending Entitlement

CWVYS is represented on all local partnerships and works with national bodies to support the entitlement of young people to education, personal development, support services and their participation in society.

Voluntary Sector Partnership Council

CWVYS represents the Youth Network and joins with other Voluntary Sector networks to raise issues directly with the Welsh Assembly Government.

Developing Quality

CWVYS works to promote the development of training, accreditation and quality assurance and with ESTYN for the development of inspection frameworks.

Young People

CWVYS strives to enable young people to be advocates for their own needs and aspirations and be involved in local and national consultations.
